Section 3. Notice. Notice of any annual or special meeting of the members shall state the time, date, place, and purpose of the meeting, and shall be delivered not more than thirty (30) and not less than five (5) days prior to the date of such meeting, unless otherwise required by applicable law.

Section 4. Quorum. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the Chapter's eligible voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any duly called meeting of the members, provided that if less than a quorum is present, a majority of the members present may adjourn the meeting to another time without further notice.

Section 5. Manner of Acting. The act of a majority or more of the members present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the members, unless the act of a greater number is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 6. Mail/Electronic Voting. Voting by ballot, mail, email or other electronic means shall be permitted for any item of business before the members to the full extent permitted by law (e.g., the not-for-profit corporation act or similar law governing the operation of not-for-profit corporations in the Chapter's state of incorporation) (the "Law"). A ballot, mail, e-mail or electronic vote may only be called by the Board of Directors. In order for a mail, e-mail or electronic vote to be valid (i) the action must be approved by a majority of members casting votes; (ii) the number of members casting votes must be sufficient to constitute a quorum had such action been taken at a meeting; and/or (iii) such other requirements as may be required by Law must be satisfied.

Section 7. Electronic Communications. Member meetings may be held via telephone conference call, similar form of telecommunications, or any technology available which would permit all participants to simultaneously communicate and effectively participate.

Section 1. Authority and Responsibility. The Chapter's affairs shall be managed by the Board of Directors (which shall be referred to in these bylaws as the "Board" or the "Board of Directors"), which shall have supervision, control, and direction of the Chapter, shall determine its policies or changes therein within the limits of these bylaws, shall actively promote its purposes, and shall have discretion in the disbursement of its funds. The Board may adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable and may, in the execution of the powers granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary. All of the Chapter's committees report to and are subject to the ultimate direction and control of the Board, unless specifically provided otherwise in these bylaws.

Section 2. Composition of the Board. The Board shall be comprised of the President, President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past President and no less than two (2) and no more than four (4) Members at Large (each a "Director").

Section 3. Qualifications. Only members shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Term. Directors shall serve a two (2) year term in office, or until such time as their successors are duly appointed, qualified, and take office and may not serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in any one office. A partial term shall not be counted toward the two (2) consecutive term limit when a Director fills a position vacated by another Director.

Section 5. Elections. No later than January 31 of each year, the Nominating Committee shall recommend a slate of qualified candidates to the Board of Directors to fill each Director and Officer position that is either vacant or set to expire. Upon final review and approval of the Nominating Committee's recommended slate, the Board shall present the approved slate of candidates to the members for election. Elections will be held at or prior to the Annual Meeting in accordance with such procedures as may be established by the Board. The results of such election will be announced to the members during the Annual Meeting immediately following their election.

Section 6. Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors may take action to set the time, date, and place for the holding of a regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors and additional regular meetings of the Board of Directors without other notice than such action.

Section 7. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by, or at the request of, the Chapter's President or upon a written request to the Chapter's President of four (4) members of the Board of Directors. Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall state the time, date, and place of the meeting and shall be delivered at least five (5) days prior to the date of such meeting. Attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called and convened.

Section 8. Meeting by Conference Call. Any action to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any committee thereof, may be taken through the use of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting of the persons so participating. Notwithstanding anything set forth to the contrary in these bylaws, any meeting to be held by conference call (whether regular or special) may be held upon a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours prior notice.

Section 9. Quorum. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any duly called meeting of the Board of Directors; provided that when less than a quorum is present at said meeting, a majority of the Board of Directors members present may adjourn the meeting to another time without further notice.

Section 10. Manner of Acting. The act of a majority of Directors present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by Law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these bylaws.

Section 11. Action Without a Meeting. Any action requiring a vote of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, setting forth the action taken, is approved by all of the members of the Board of Directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

Section 12. Waiver of Notice. Notice of any meeting need not be given to any member of the Board of Directors who submits a signed waiver of notice whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him or her. Attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called and convened.

Section 13. Resignation and Removal. Any member of the Board of Directors may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President. In addition, any member of the Board of Directors may be removed by the persons entitled to appoint such Director, whenever, in their judgment, the best interests of the Chapter would be served by such removal and in accordance with the Law. A Director who no longer meets the qualifications for office shall be automatically removed and such vacancy shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

Section 14. Vacancies. Any vacant position in any office or on the Board shall be filled by the majority vote of the Board for the remaining unexpired term, except for the positions of President and President-Elect. If the President is unable to complete his or her elected term of office for any reason, the President-Elect shall succeed to the office of President. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President-Elect, the Nominating Committee shall recommend by mail to the membership a candidate to fill the elective office. A vote of the majority of the members present at the next regular meeting shall be required to elect a President-Elect to fill a vacancy. A Director appointed pursuant to this Section shall hold their position for the remainder of the original term for which he or she was appointed to fill.

Section 15. Compensation. Directors shall not receive any remuneration for their services as Directors. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Chapter in any other capacity and receiving reasonable compensation therefor.

ARTICLE VII OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The Officers of the Chapter shall be a President, President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Immediate Past President (collectively, the "Officers"). With the exception of the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, no two (2) offices may be held simultaneously by the same person.

Section 2. Qualifications. Officers must be members in good standing in both the Chapter and the Association. Candidates for officer positions in the Chapter must (i) have been a member of the Chapter for at least one (1) year at the time of election and must have chaired at least (1) committee.

Section 3. Term.

(a) Officers shall serve a one (1) year term in office, with the exception of the Treasurer and Secretary, who shall serve a two (2) year term in office, or until such time as their successors are duly appointed, qualified, and take office. The term of all officers shall begin the day after the conclusion of the annual meeting immediately following their election and shall run until the close of the next annual meeting following their appointment or until such time as successors are duly appointed, qualified, and assume their position. Officers may not serve for more than two (2) consecutive terms in a single officer position. Officers serving more than half of a full term shall be deemed to have served a full term in office.

Section 4. Elections. The Officers shall be elected in accordance with Article VI, Section 5 above.

Section 5. Resignation and Removal of Officers. Any Officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President or Secretary. In addition, any Officer may be removed by the Board, whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of the Chapter would be served by such removal. Such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Appointment of an Officer or agent shall not of itself create any contract rights.

Section 6. Officer Vacancies. The President-Elect shall automatically succeed to the office of President in the event of the death, resignation, removal, or incapacity of the President and the office of President-Elect shall remain vacant until the next appointment. A President-Elect filling a vacancy in the office of President shall subsequently serve as President for the one-year term of office to which he or she was originally appointed to serve. In the event the President-Elect position is vacant at such time as there becomes a vacancy in the office of President, the Board of Directors immediately shall fill the office of President and such appointee shall hold office until the next appointment. A vacancy in the office of Immediate Past President shall cause that office to remain vacant until such time that the currently seated President succeeds to fill that office. A vacancy in the office of Secretary or Treasurer shall be filled by the Board of Directors from amongst the current members of the Board. An officer appointed pursuant to this Section shall hold such office for the remainder of the original term for which she or he was appointed to fill.

Section 7. Resignation and Removal. An Officer may resign in writing submitted to the President. In the case of the resignation of the President, the resignation will be submitted to the Secretary who will refer such resignation to Chapter Board of Directors. A resignation will be effective on the acceptance date of the resignation as determined by the Chapter Board of Directors. An Officer who no longer meets the qualifications for office shall automatically be removed and such vacancy shall be filled as set forth above. Such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Appointment of an Officer or agent shall not of itself create any contract rights.
